

Name: Matt Mitsis

Hometown: South Boston, MA

Years in NEMS: 13

Years on NEMS Board: 4

Background:

Matt has been skiing for most of his life but didn't pick up ski racing until high school at Acton-Boxboro. In addition to racing for his school, Matt also raced USSA in the NARA division. Matt began racing in Wachusett Mountain's night league program while attending UMass- Amherst. He continues to race in that league today. Matt began racing with NEMS in 2007 and has been going strong ever since, winning multiple class titles across classes 1-3.

Most recently Matt helped the Eastern Division win the 2019 Masters National Championships at Mammoth, where he was named to the 2019 Masters Spyder Team. He also won the National Speed Series for Class 3.

Outside of ski racing Matt enjoys spending time with his wife, traveling, good wine and cold beer. Matt also competes in road and trail races across New England, and pretty much enjoys doing anything outdoors.

Professional Background:

In his free time, Matt is a Sr. Investment Manager at Fidelity Investments, where he manages individual client portfolios. Matt received a BA in Economics from UMass- Amherst and an MBA and MSF from Boston College.
